

January 2023 Newsletter

Dear Parents,

Wishing you and yours a safe, healthy, and prosperous new year! Thank you for all your good wishes and Christmas gifts that we received before the winter break. We hope that you had restful and enjoyable holidays.

Topics for January

January is a great time to explore winter. We are going to talk about the calendar, the weather, and the animals that hibernate. The Lunar New Year occurs near the beginning of the calendar new year so, we will explore different cultures' traditions. If you have any children picture books related to our January topics, please encourage your children to bring them to school on Fridays for the Show and Tell Activity.

Lunar New Year celebration

You are welcome to bring red envelopes/ cards/ treats (NUTS FREE!!!). Please ensure that no one is left out (21 children) and write just your child's name (e.g From: your child's name). All children are welcomed to wear red or a traditional costume on Monday, January 23 when we celebrate the Lunar New Year.

Reminders

- We recommend dressing up your children properly with winter jacket, scarf, hat, mittens, boots etc.
- Please keep children at home if they display any cold/ flu/ covid-19 symptoms until they improve and no fever for 24 hours.
- By the end of February, all parents will receive via email the receipts for last year (2022) tuition fees.
- Registration process for 2023/2024 school year for our existing children and siblings from our waitlist will start in February.
- Do not hesitate to contact the teachers if you have some concerns or other issues in regards of your child. Teachers will be more than happy to help you on your prearranged appointment.
- Back to school on Tuesday, January 3.

We look forward to this term and to many wonderful experiences ahead of us in 2023.

Sincerely,

Ms. Farah, Ms. Shukria, and Ms. Serena
